Eisenhower Asks Congress to Vote Soil Bank to Ease Plight of Nation's Farmers

Bond Issue, Fuel Tax Urged to Build State Highways

State CC Would Use Surplus Fund

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—The New York Good Roads Assn. today threw its support again behind proposals for a highway bond issue and motor-fuel tax increases rejected by the voters last fall.

Thomas G. Carroll Jr., representing the association at a public-state commission on highway finance, said that a bond issue and immediate boosts in motor fuel taxes were needed to "catch up on a backlog of highway requirements."

"IF IT IS determined that the state . . . will require the same amount of bonds and the same tax increase that you have previously recommended," Carroll said in a prepared statement, "then we will support the same program that you previously submitted . . . ."

However, he imposed one exception:

"We believe that the matter of self-taxation should not again be submitted to the people."

LAST NOVEMBER, the voters turned down a proposed constitutional amendment that would have permitted the state to float 750 million dollars worth of bonds to pay for highway construction and repairs.

A law passed by the 1955 Legislature provided that, if the amendment were approved, the state tax on gasoline would be increased from four to six cents a gallon and the tax on diesel fuel from six to nine cents a gallon.

THE NEW YORK State Automobile Assn. fought the highway program—recommended by the commission—solely because there was no provision for constitutional "earmarking" of the tax increases to assure that the money would be used only for paying off the bonds or other highway purposes.

Sen. Joseph Zaretzki, Manhattan Democrat, told a reporter today that he would introduce bills in the Legislature tonight to re-submit the highway program to the voters with a provision for constitutional "earmarking" of the tax increases.

PLAQUE DELIVERED TO KINGSTON, JAMAICA—A plaque from this city to Kingston, Jamaica was presented to Mayor McFarland by Dr. Herbert Martin, of 111 Maiden Lane and Dr. Albert Margolis, of 8 Pearl street, during their recent visit to Jamaica. The plaque marks the 300th anniversary of the Jamaica city and is in reciprocation of a similar presentation made to this city when it celebrated its 300th anniversary. Dr. Martin (center) and Dr. Margolis (left) display plaque to Captain Giovanni Ruffini of the S. S. Homer, Home Lines new flagship. The two local residents were the emissaries of Mayor Frederick H. ### Harriman to Insist Tax Cut Be for Middle Income Group

New York, Jan. 9 (AP)—Gov. Averell Harriman says he will insist that any state income tax cut this year favor persons in middle and lower income brackets.

The governor, who discussed his tax program in two television broadcasts yesterday, said his tax cut proposals would give 90 per cent of the benefit to families with less than $10,000 a year.

Javits Against Tax Cut Until Surplus Is Known

New York, Jan. 9 (AP)—Republican Atty. Gen. Jacob K. Javits says any decision on cutting state income taxes this year should await legislative action on Gov. Harriman's operating budget.

Javits, who appeared yesterday on a TV program, was praised later by Harriman for giving "wise advice" to the Republican party.

Man Shoots Self As Police Arrive

Frank Kilmer, 37, of 50 Hurley avenue, World War 2 veteran, who authorities said, had been despondent for some time, fatally shot himself as two patrolmen, answering a call, were approaching his house Sunday afternoon.

Coroner Francis J. McCardle, who today issued a verdict of suicide, said death was due to massive hemorrhage from shotgun wound in the neck and face. Kilmer was reported dead upon arrival at Kingston Hospital at 4:55 p. m., several minutes after he had turned the shotgun on himself in front of his home.

THE CORONER said Kilmer had been ill and despondent for some time. Police received a call to the Hurley avenue house at 4:35 p. m., and Kilmer pulled the trigger of the shotgun as Officers Thomas McGrane and

Fire Causes Heavy Damage to Highland Garage of Beverage Distributing Firm

Fire, apparently started by an overheated coal-burning stove, caused heavy damage early today to a garage owned by a Highland beverage distributor.

The building, owned by Steve Norton, Hoffman Beverages distributor, was partially destroyed in the northeast corner, according to Chief William Maynard of the Highland Hose Company. The chief said six or seven trucks housed in the garage escaped the blaze and sustained only smoke damage.

Firemen discovered smoke and fire pouring through the office window on arrival at 6:15 a. m., the chief said. He reported that and approximately 400 cases of beverages were destroyed, according to Theodore Baker, an employee of the beverage distributor.

Chief Maynard said the building, located on Vineyard avenue just outside the village, contained "an old-fashioned coal-burning stove." The chief said apparently, someone left a stuffed chair "too close to the stove and the chair became ignited."

Firemen discovered smoke and fire pouring through the office window on arrival at 6:15 a. m., the chief said. He reported that

Physicians' Poll Says That Ike Physically Fit for Second Term

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—About three out of five heart specialists out of 246 responding in a poll whose propriety was questioned by the American Medical Assn. (AMA) say they think President Eisenhower is physically fit to seek a second term. Two out of five say he is not.

Results of the poll were published under copyright today by U. S. News and World Report, a news magazine. The poll was conducted for the magazine by the research organization of Benson & Benson, Inc., of Princeton, N. J.

QUESTIONNAIRES were sent to the 444 doctors certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine as heart specialists. Of this number, 275 or about 62 per cent replied. Twenty-nine of these did not give direct answers.

The two questions asked and the replies, as given by the magazine:

"Based on what you have read about the nature of the President's illness, and assuming a normal convalescence in the next few months, do you think Mr. Eisenhower can be regarded as physically able to serve a second term? Yes: 141, or 60.3 per cent; No: 93, or 39.7 per cent.

"DO YOU THINK a man who has suffered a heart attack can be regarded as physically able to serve a term as President?"

Yes: 152, or 64 per cent; No: 84, or 35.6 per cent.

No names of physicians were used by the magazine, nor did the research organization ask that replies be signed.

The Journal of the AMA, in an editorial published last Friday, urged heart specialists not to take part in the survey, saying it "should be tossed into the wastebasket." It said among other things that "the questions are very definitely slanted politically" and that "consultation without examination is absurd."

Presumably most if not all of the replies received were in the mail before the AMA journal appeared. U. S. News and World Report, at any rate, said the 62 per cent response "is described by those familiar with mail polls as 'extraordinary' or even 'phenomenal.'"

THE MAGAZINE said it published the results of the poll along with the comments of all the physicians who responded, as a public service. In defense of the basis for the survey, it noted there had been widespread publication of technical data on the President's Sept. 24 heart attack, including the ex-

Andrew Lee, 17, Dies From Accidental Shot

A 17-year-old Woodstock youth died almost instantly early Saturday afternoon when he was struck in the right chest by a blast from a 12 gauge shotgun while hunting with two companions in the town of Marbletown.

Andrew Chandler Lee, son of Theodore R. and Josephine Chandler Lee of Glasco Turnpike, staggered about 30 feet and collapsed after receiving a blast of No. 6 shot, Troopers E. P. Shannon, BCI, and William Shurter of the Kingston state police reported.

THEY SAID young Lee was walking along a secondary road between Cottekill and Marbletown about 12:50 p. m. with Thomas C. Rowland, Jr., 15, of 66 West O'Reilly street, and Theodore Gordon Peck, 16, of 77 Pearl street, when they heard some cartridges fly up on the left side of the road.

Peck swung his gun to shoot but slipped on a patch of ice and the gun went off inadvertently, the troopers said.

THE BOYS ran to a farm house about 400 yards away, occupied by the Raimondi family, and state police were notified. Dr. Anthony Tocco of Stone Ridge was called. He reached the scene about 1:10 p. m. and pronounced young Lee dead. Coroner Francis J. McCardle issued a verdict of accidental death due to a massive hemorrhage of the right thorax.

Young Lee, known as Andy to his Kingston High School classmates, was recently elected the most popular boy and best athlete in the junior class.

HE WAS a fine academic student and participated in many extra-curricular activities. He served as treasurer of the sophomore class and was a member of the Key Club. This year he was vice-president of the Student Council.

He was also an outstanding

Ellenville to Vote Friday On $35,000 Parking Area

The voters of the village of Ellenville will ballot on a special referendum Friday to determine whether the village board of trustees will be empowered to spend $35,000 on a municipal parking lot.

The voting will take place from 12 noon to 8 p. m. at Hunt Memorial building in the village.

The board of trustees adopted a resolution on November 7 calling for the special election to ascertain public sentiment in regard to the project.

Mayor Eugene Glusker told the Freeman that a number of sites for the proposed parking lot in the business area have been under consideration and that the board is waiting for the outcome of the referendum. He said that a municipal parking lot is definitely needed for the progress of the village.

In regard to making the proposed lot self-sustaining, Mayor Glusker said it has been the board's intention that parking meters be installed.

Should the voters approve the board's resolution to purchase a site and expand up to $35,000 for off-street parking the proposed new lot will be the only one in the village.

TWO INJURED, CAR WRECKED—Two

New York city residents of 268 Naigle avenue were injured when this car struck a pole on the Boulevard, near the city line, Sunday at 10:25 a. m., according to police. Battista Poletti, 57, driver, suffered injuries of the left side and left leg, they said. Ines Poletti, 61, suffered injuries to her nose and left leg. The car was headed into Kingston according to the report by Patrolmen Floyd Krom (left) and Gurnsey Burger Jr. (Annen photo).

To Reduce
Big Crops
Other Proposals
Made in Message

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—President Eisenhower asked Congress today to vote a soil bank plan to help use up the present towering surplus of farm products as part of a nine-point program to ease the plight of farmers.

In a special message to Congress, Eisenhower called for urgent attention to the "paradox facing our farm families," he said:

"ALTHOUGH agriculture is our basic industry, they find their prices and income depressed amid the nation's greatest prosperity. For five years, their economy has declined. Unless corrected these economic reversals are a direct threat to the well being to all of our people."

Eisenhower's outline suggested additions to existing controversial programs which agriculture officials said would put more than an extra billion dollars into farmers' pockets from government resources.

FARM INCOME declined slightly more than a billion dollars last year.

The recommendations would be aimed, Eisenhower said, at using present price-depressing crop surpluses to reduce output. Farmers who helped cut back production would be offered government surpluses as compensation.

The program lays much of its immediate emphasis on the soil bank or "acreage reserve" plan under which farmers would be encouraged—but not compelled—to reduce plantings until surpluses grow enough to buy agriculture's productive capacity.

ENCOURAGEMENT for idling crop land would be offered in the form of cash payments as well as surplus stocks of such crops as cotton, wheat and possibly corn, rice and peanuts.

If the program were authorized by Congress and Congress took full advantage, the payments and the value of the surplus crops that would go to producers would total about one billion dollars. This is at least three-quarters of a million more than they got in direct payments from the government in 1955.

IN ADDITION to the soil bank plan, Eisenhower proposed:

1. New steps to move stocks from the present seven-billion-dollar surplus holdings into foreign and domestic use.

2. Easing of production controls on some major crops.

3. That Congress consider placing a dollar limit on the amount of price support aid that could be given to a single farm.

4. A speedup of the rural development program for low-income farmers first suggested by the administration last year.

5. Greater aid to stabilized farming in the drought-plagued great plains.

6. A 25 per cent increase in federal appropriations for research aimed at finding new uses, new markets and new crops for agriculture.

7. Assurance that the federal government will always supply adequate credit to meet farmers' needs.

8. That the federal government make refunds to farmers of gas-

N. Y. State Forms Stevenson Group

New York, Jan. 9 (AP)—Formation of a New York state "Stevenson for President Committee" was announced today by Thomas K. Finletter, former secretary of the Air Force, and Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg, former assistant secretary of defense.

Finletter and Mrs. Rosenberg, who have been active for months in an unofficial capacity in the pro-Stevenson movement, will serve as co-chairmen of the new organization.

Finletter said the state group will work in cooperation with the National Stevenson Committee.

Rain Aids Thaw In Cutting Snow

A January thaw helped by rain today was breaking down ice in area streams and cutting away light snow in the region.

Mild weather and occasional rain was due to continue tonight and Tuesday.

Ice slicked highways throughout most of the northeast today, the Associated Press said, but travel was not seriously hampered in the Ulster county area.

A TEMPERATURE rise began locally shortly after midnight and the mercury reached 43 at 1:30 p. m., today. The overnight low was 23 at 1 a. m. Sunday's low was 16 at 3 a. m., and the high was 22 at 2 p. m.

A huge storm center, said the AP, hung listlessly about midway between the Atlantic coast and Bermuda.

New York city and other eastern cities experienced traffic tie-ups as freezing rain moved inland into eastern and central New York, New Jersey and eastern Pennsylvania. The Great Lakes region was generally colder.

The warm air belt, hugging the New England coast, gave Hartford a temperature of 42 early today, equal to that at West Palm Beach, Fla.

Rough Hockey

Detroit, Jan. 9 (AP)—Nineteen penalties, a fist fight and a pair of smashed glasses enlivened the Detroit Red Wings 4-3 victory over the Boston Bruins in a rowdy National Hockey League game Sunday. Hal Laycoe, the only NHL player to wear glasses, got them splintered in a third period row with Detroit's Alex Delvecchio. Laycoe was tripped and came up swinging with his stick. Delvecchio was the target and the two quickly tangled, with fists flying.

Charges Withdrawn

Two third degree assault charges against Clifford Carlson, 25, of 65 Staples street, were withdrawn in city court today. Carlson was picked up on Dock street on warrants executed by Officers Gurney Burger, Jr., and Floyd Krom Saturday. George Polis, proprietor of a restaurant on lower Broadway, was listed as the complainant.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the employees of the Fessenden Shirt Factory, Skyline Mfg. Co., employees of the plumbing construction at L.B.M. and St. Mary's Rosary Society, and all our relatives, friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness during our late bereavement.

Signed,

Four Injured in Wilbur Avenue Accident Today

Four persons were injured in the collision of a coupe and station wagon on Wilbur avenue near Gilead street this morning.

Robert P. Wolfel, 30, of 27 Pettit avenue, owner and operator of the coupe, suffered injuries of the hands and chest, and Walter Helmich, 43, of Edaville, owner and driver of the station wagon, reported injuries of the nose, mouth and chest.

With Helmich were his sons, Kenneth, 8, who suffered a head injury, and Leonard, 6, who reported a mouth injury.

A police report at 8:18 a. m. said Wolfel was headed south on Wilbur avenue and the station wagon was going north.

The injured were treated at the Benedictine Hospital and the vehicles were towed from the scene.

Boys Rounded Up

Coburg, Ont., Jan. 9 (AP)—Seven teenage boys, five described as "veteran escapees," were rounded up early today after eight hours' freedom from the Boys' Training School. Police said the "veterans" stole two cars before they were recaptured. The escape followed reported threats of a "mass uprising" by the 138 juvenile boys in the school over the transfer of the former superintendent, William Little, to Brampton Reformatory.

Search for Deviate

London, Ont., Jan. 9 (AP)—Deputies pushed an all-out search today for a sex deviate wanted in the death of five-year-old Susan Cadieux. The child's body was found Saturday before dawn in a snow-covered lumberyard, one arm across a railway track and her cheeks crusted with frozen tears. Police said she had died of exposure. An autopsy showed she had been criminally assaulted.

Restore Aid

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—The State Department was reported today to have restored a 10-million dollar cut in aid to India which had been ordered by Foreign Aid Director John B. Hollister. Secretary of State Dulles is understood to have directed personally that the aid be reinstated, partly in response to appeals from U. S. Ambassador John Sherman Cooper in New York.

No Atomic Weapons

Seoul, Jan. 9 (AP)—Adm. Arthur Radford said today "it will be impossible to bring atomic weapons into South Korea under the armistice agreement." Radford, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, gave a planeside interview when he arrived. He will confer with President Rhee. Radford, asked about South Korean requests for atomic weapons said "I have no information."

Heavy Penalty

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell today asked Congress to provide a penalty of one year imprisonment or $1,000 fine, or both, for any eavesdropping on the deliberations of a federal jury.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Jan. 9 (AP)—A slightly higher tendency was found today in the stock market.

The list, however, displayed a broad mixture of gains and losses covering a narrow range that only occasionally exceeded a point.

The pace of trading was around 2,500,000 shares for the day. That compares with 2,570,000 shares traded Friday when the market was higher.

The American Stock Exchange was active, with prices generally higher.

The bond market was moderately higher. U. S. government issues over the counter were steady.

Ike to Request Money for NE Flood Control

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—Houseleaders said today President Eisenhower will ask this week for a special appropriation to speed work on New England flood control.

Reps. McCormack (D-Mass.) and Martin (R-Mass.) the two party leaders in the House, both said they had received White House notification of the planned request.

THE SIZE of the supplemental appropriation to be asked was not disclosed, McCormack added, but he said army engineers in Boston had been talking in terms of about $1,850,000.

McCormack said the fund request, slated for priority treatment in Congress, would be for advance planning work by the army in flood control projects in New England. He said it might include some for Pennsylvania, likewise hard hit by floods last fall.

The money would be in addition to that already appropriated to the engineers for the year ending June 30, and would enable a faster start on the flood projects.

IF THEY get the funds before Feb. 15 they'll be a year advanced over where they'd be if they had to wait for next year's regular appropriation, McCormack said.

To Dissolve Congress

New York, Jan. 9 (AP)—A convention of the Civil Rights Congress, which was placed on the U. S. Attorney General's list of subversive organizations several years ago, has voted to dissolve the organization. The Congress said "persistent persecution by reactionary forces in government" led to its decision. The Congress has been under fire from a number of government agencies. The convention's action, taken here Saturday, covered 19 chapters in various cities.

Cold in Georgia

Atlanta, Jan. 9 (AP)—Georgians awoke to 25 degree weather this morning for the second straight day and prepared for even colder weather tonight. The predicted low is 18 degrees in North Georgia, ranging up to 28 degrees along the Florida border. Fair, windy conditions accompany the cold.

Mt. Tremper Man First Local IBM Employee in Group

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—Sen. Lehman (D-N. Y.) says the amounts of federal money spent to prevent floods in the northeast "have been minute compared with the heavy appropriations for parts of the south and west."

The acting chairman of the Senate Banking and Currency Committee was holding hearings in northeastern states on his and other bills proposing various disaster insurance plans.

He cited a recent study by Prof. Seymour Harris, Harvard economist, as proving the need for a comprehensive federal disaster insurance program.

Harris' figures show, Lehman said, that taxpayers of New York, New England, California and the other wealthier states are paying for flood control, highways, soil conservation and other direct benefits in every other part of the country but their own.

Granted Divorce

Bunnell, Fla., Jan. 9 (AP)—A Florida circuit judge has awarded a divorce to Dorothy McGuire, once beloved by crooner Julius La Rosa. Judge George W. Jackson signed the decree Friday. It became final upon filing today, said Joseph Hirschman, attorney for the husband, Air Force Sgt. John Henry Brown. Brown originally brought suit Aug. 16—seven months after she announced their reconciliation—and Dorothy filed a countersuit Aug. 30. Both charged cruelty and Judge Jackson appointed an examiner to take testimony.

104 Children Saved In $800,000 Fire

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—Some 104 children returned to school today in a building just beyond the burned-out shell of the orphanage that had been their home.

The children escaped injury in a four-alarm fire that destroyed the three-story brick building of the German Roman Catholic home Saturday. One nun and four firemen were injured slightly.

The children were led to safety by the 21 nuns in the building at the time of the fire.

Fire Commissioner William A. Daly estimated damage at $800,000. He said the cause of the fire was undetermined.

Hundreds of firemen fought the blaze in freezing temperatures. It roared out of control for nearly two hours.

The building destroyed was the main building of the orphanage. Several others, including the school, were undamaged. The orphanage is run by the sisters from the Third Order of St. Francis in Williamsville.

The children were moved to the Immaculate Heart of Mary Home for Children in suburban Cheektowaga.

Slate Conference To Solve Problem Of Area Oat Rust

To help area farmers meet the problem of rust on oats which has reportedly reduced the yield as much as 50 per cent and sometimes even more, for the past two seasons, fertilizer dealers will confer with Cornell specialists to discuss new varieties and recommendations.

The announcement according to Robert D. Guzewich, associate county agricultural agent, scheduled the meeting for Friday at 1:30 p. m. to be held at The Kitchen on Route 9 at Hyde Park.

Agent Guzewich urged all local dealers and farmer dealers who regularly sell seeds and fertilizers to attend this conference. Ten other conferences are being held by the Cornell specialists and county agents to bring up-to-date crop information to dealers serving farmers throughout New York state.

No Price Uptrend Is Seen for Hogs And Beef Cattle

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—The Agriculture Department, in a forecast going beyond the November elections, said today it foresees no sustained upturn in low prices of meat animals in the years immediately ahead.

Sharp reductions in producers' prices of cattle and hogs have become a political issue, with many Democrats saying administration farm programs have been ineffective.

IN A REPORT on the live-stock situation, the department said it appears now that production of meat animals for the next few years is likely to continue at high volume and the supply of meat to consumers to remain abundant.

Expansion in the production of hogs and cattle has been blamed by administration farm officials for this year's price setbacks, which have contributed heavily to a decline in farm income in the politically important midwest.

The report said it is possible that hog prices will not decline as sharply next fall as they did during the past fall, but that they are expected to average somewhat lower than this year.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, JANUARY 9, 1956

AUTO INDUSTRY PROBLEM

While the nation's motormakers were having their greatest year in 1955, with nearly 8,000,000 cars produced, a problem of sorts was building up for them. Despite record sales volume, dealers watched their backlog of cars more than double in the 12-month span.

On January 1, 1955, their stocks came to 360,000 cars. Now they total 800,000, having risen 440,000 during the year.

Somehow, some way, the manufacturers are going to have to take account of these figures in 1956. If they were to produce and sell just what they did in 1955, obviously the dealers' backlog would climb still further.

Either they must press sales upward to absorb some of these stocks, or cut back production to reduce them.

At least a couple of top motor executives, including Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors, foresee a 1956 car production drop of from 12 to 15 per cent. One other is more optimistic, looking for a strengthened demand in the months ahead.

An output reduced by 12 to 15 per cent, if matched with sales approximating 1955 figures, would allow dealers to cut deeply into their burdensome stocks. Production slashed by perhaps a mere five per cent would just enable dealers to hold the backlog at its present level—which many consider too high.

If these cuts are to be avoided, then dealers must sell many more cars than they did in 1955. Curtice, for one, appears to doubt that this is likely. Even in the year just closed, some dealers went to extremes in offering liberal credit in order to unload the stuff pouring in on them from the makers.

This situation was a cause of concern both in industry and government. If credit in 1956 is as a consequence a bit tighter, it may not be easy to push sales to a new high.

All the general economic forecasts for 1956 are pretty cheerful. But it would be foolish to imagine that the automobile industry could cut back more than 10 per cent without having it show in the whole economy. Car-making ramifies widely through many other basic industries which supply materials and parts.

Should the cuts take place and the economy contract a little, we should keep in mind, however, that this doesn't spell recession. The economy is bound to fluctuate some time to time. A 12 per cent reduction in car output would mean 7,000,000 cars in 1956—second greatest in our history. Hardly a situation calling for the wringing of hands.

Begin something in anger, and the odds are that it'll end the same way.

A NEW CONGRESS

A new session of Congress lies ahead. Senators and Representatives will have many important jobs facing them, extremely important decisions to make. Debate and difference of opinion will come on many issues, particularly since 1956 is an election year.

Often a Congress in an election year accomplishes little. The party in power is anxious to make as attractive a record as possible to win voters. The party out of power does its best to pass legislation for which it can claim credit and keep the opposition from making gains.

It doesn't always happen this way. Congress often buries political differences for the national good. Needed legislation is passed without regard for politics. This happens sometimes and it is the ideal.

If ever a Congress needed to assume such an attitude of nation before politics, this one does. A bitter political fight for the presidency is shaping up and there are some legislators who want to wage part of the battle on the floors of Senate and House. Wiser, more dedicated members of Congress may be able to prevent this from happening. Political parties are expected to differ, but the way to express that difference is not in delaying needed legislation.

A VALUABLE BOOK

Now that the Cold War is on again, it is no longer impolite to look into the methods by which the Russians seek to accomplish their ends in this country. The most useful method is infiltration, which means the utilization of natives to influence, if not control, the minds not only of current but of succeeding generations. Only the Russians are able to use this method because of their control of the Communist Party in every country.

This need not be accomplished exclusively through Communists but preferably through educators, publicists and other forensic personalities who, for good or bad reasons, misrepresent the Russian aims and thereby serve their purposes.

Professor E. Merrill Root has written a competent and daring book on this subject, entitled "Collectivism on the Campus" with a subtitle "The battle for the mind in American colleges." It is a thoughtful and thought-provoking book particularly for parents who constantly wonder how their children got that way—by that way, meaning so antagonistic to everything that the parents thought they understood to be American.

It is astounding that Professor Root dared to write this book since the current style is for professors and others who call themselves intellectuals to insist upon a universal conformity to their fashions, which consist of an acceptance of Marxism as inevitable, of Humanism as the only true faith, and of environmentalism as the total explanation of the Cosmos and all that is therein.

It is therefore the conservative professor who is out of step and unpopular on the campus. Professor Root says of this:

"The collectivist attack, whether by Communists, fellow travelers, or Fabians, is so nearly overwhelming that few professors dare affirm what Emerson called the infinitude of the private man, our major academic heresy."

"Yet, even so, a few professors remain who are skeptical of the omnipotent State and of economics as the essential factor in all human affairs—cultural, philosophical, artistic, religious. They hold an older, deeper faith. And, as radical conservatives, they refuse to be Laodicean and passive; they will speak even if their heads, to be unbowed, must be bloody."

He quotes President Emeritus William Cullen Dennis of Earlham College who said:

"... A conservative professor, if dismissed, will have no talking point to use as a shield, because his dismissal by supposedly 'conservative' authorities will never be attributed to any 'ideas' he holds. The conservative professor, moreover, will have no militant and vocal group to leap to his defense. The result naturally is that college presidents or trustees today will always hesitate and fear to dismiss a 'liberal' or even a 'radical' collectivist from their college, but that they will never hesitate to dismiss a conservative professor if he is incompetent. ... Today the 'liberal' professor is almost sure to be retained even if incompetent; but the conservative professor can be dismissed without causing even a ripple in the academic lake."

Dr. John Hanna, Professor of Law at Columbia University, is quoted to the effect:

"In the past 20 years, when the New Deal patronized the professors, Government gave the left-wing professors power and prestige which they have exploited in the universities to give the impression that only the liberals have scholarly competence."

"I know of a faculty of a great university where the controlling liberals have added only one new full-time Republican professor in 20 years, compared to a dozen others. A state university engineering faculty prescribed that its dean must advocate public ownership of utilities. An economics faculty wanted a professor of insurance to present the subject from the Marxian standpoint."

It would be interesting to read a refutation of Professor Root's book by some so-called liberal scholar, if he has anything to refute. The documentation in Root's book is full and checkable. Thus far, I have not seen a single refutation of facts, only an occasional smear of the professor and what comes down to an accusation of being a tattle-tale. This is like the charge against informants which, if analyzed carefully, means little more than the insistence upon the position that one should not say what he believes to be true lest his saying so hurts someone who says the opposite. But parents and taxpayers might desire to have the information which Professor Root provides so completely and literately. They might want to show it to their children.

PLASTIC SURGERY

Quite a few of us, when we hear the phrase, "reconstructive plastic surgery of the face," think only of the type of surgery that is done for cosmetic or beautifying purposes. However, the type of plastic surgery that is meant regarding the establishment of the Clinic for Reconstructive Plastic Surgery of the Face, the first of its kind in the United States, has nothing to do with the beautifying type, but to aid facial disfigurement.

This new Clinic, now under construction, is to be added to the east wing of the Manhattan Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital. The program of the Society for the Rehabilitation of the Facially Disfigured has four major goals: (1) a model clinic which will treat facial disfigurements as well as the psycho-social and vocational problems associated with the facially disfigured; (2) the funding of fellowships and residences (for young physicians to specialize in this branch of medical treatment); (3) promotion of research projects, and (4) the supporting of teaching clinics.

The disfigured face is the result of accident, disease such as cancer, or abnormalities of birth. It is the face of the child which bears a congenital (present at birth) deformity, a woman with a malignant (cancerous) lip, a man scarred in an industrial accident, a veteran seared in combat.

What is the scope of the problem? In New York city, where figures are available, approximately one in every 750 children is born with a cleft lip or palate and hundreds of others are born with a wide variety of facial abnormalities. The most reliable surveys indicate there are 100,000 children in the United States requiring treatment for such deformities. Last year there were 2,000,000 disabling work accidents reported, many of which involved the face and head. In addition, there were 1,000,000 accidents to children due to motor vehicles, burns or falls.

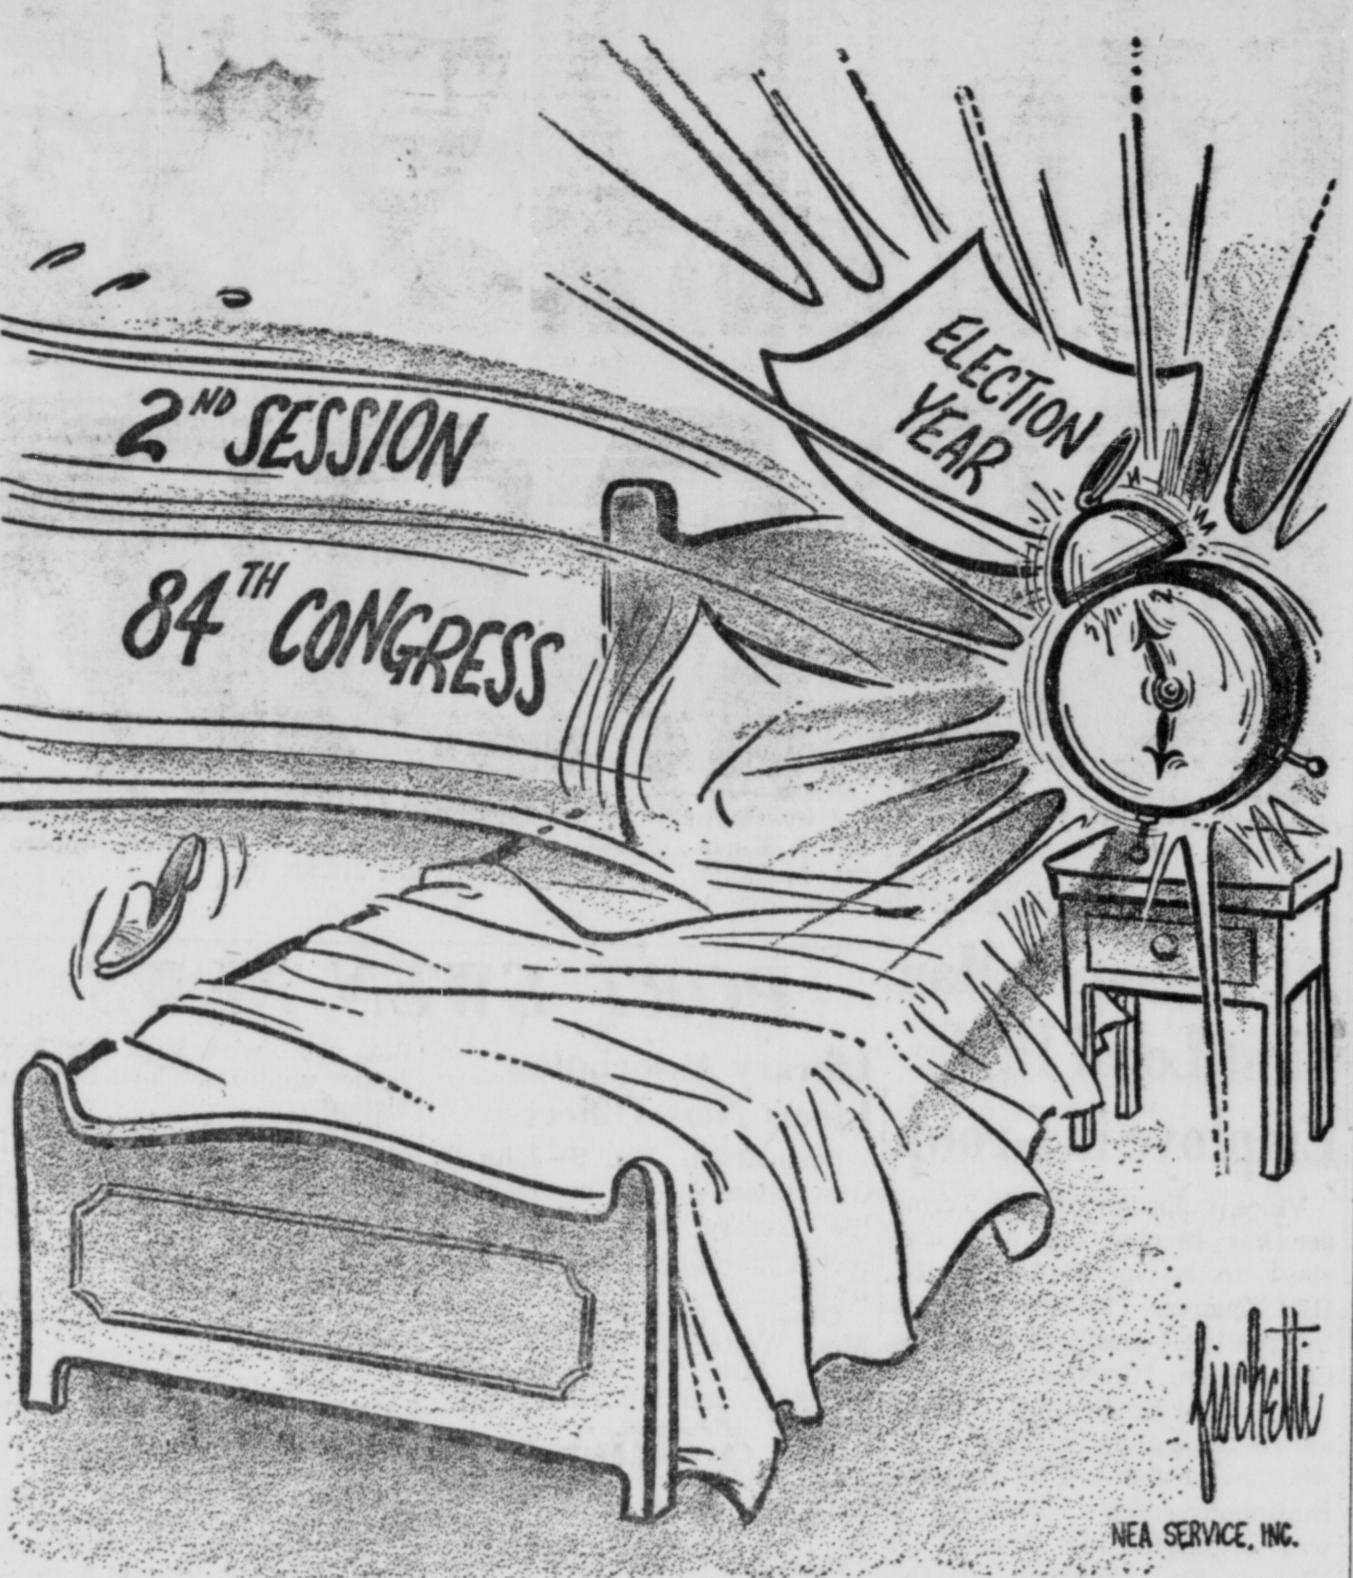

There are hundreds of additional persons with facial disfigurements resulting from the surgery which is often required to remove malignant growths of the face.

What is the approach to the problem? Since World War 2, much has been learned about the treatment of serious disfigurements of the face. New techniques of diagnosis and reconstructive plastic surgery have been developed. Encouraging progress has been made in the psychological and vocational rehabilitation of the patient with the disfigured face. What is needed is a co-ordinated program of treatment. This means not only the services of a team of specialists in the associated fields of psycho-social therapy. Tomorrow we will discuss just what the Society for the Rehabilitation of the Facialily Disfigured, Inc., is trying to do about this problem.

Washington—(NEA)—The Eisenhower administration is now suffering from third year growing pains. They afflict practically every new administration in mid-first term.

A new team comes to town all steamed up about economy. Department heads vie to show how much they can cut expenses and get the government out of business.

Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks, after a conference with the President, announced that the administration was leaning towards a 25-billion-dollar, 14-year highway program. This would mean increased spending at the average rate of 1.8 billion a year.

There has never been anything like the official leaks on next year's budget that have come out of Washington in recent days. It amounts to a rivalry among Cabinet officers to see who can announce advance plans to ask Congress for more money in the next fiscal year.

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE Charles E. Wilson in open press conference announced a one billion dollar increase in his budget—to a total of 35.5 billion dollars next year's budget.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles compounded Congressional consternation by clearing up the confusion over what next year's foreign aid request will be.

Department of Agriculture is still trying to put its new farm aid program together in final form. But the six-point plan outlined by Sec. Ezra Taft Benson will call for increased appropriations of at least 500 million dollars.

THESE ARE NO GOOD estimates yet on next year's tax collections. While most of his cabinet colleagues have been loose-lipped about what they wanted to spend, Sec. of the Treasury George M. ## A Boy's First Dog

By FRANK TRIPP

Little Kenny's dog Unk grew so big and officious that he became a neighborhood nuisance. Still he was devoted to Kenny and was an efficient policeman; a bit too efficient with others' children.

Unk, for Uncle, was a strange cross of German shepherd and French poodle, a disheveled, lumbering, untidy fellow, who would knock children senseless in his rough play and leave a house dirty and bedraggled by one romp through it.

Then, undeterred by his mischief of grabbing a child by the arm and dragging him out of a car's path, leaving the child white with fear of him.

At heart, Unk was a good dog, but belonged in the great open spaces.

It had long been evident that Unk was misplaced in the cultured environs of Westport. So, one day our Polly, Kenny's mother, thinking to pave the way for Unk's exodus, said to her three-year-old: "You would miss Unk if he went away, wouldn't you?"

Surprisingly Kenny said, "No."

TRY AS SHE might to make Kenny confess any concern for Unk's future, the tot would not desert the negative. That, then, was the time for Unk to change abode.

You wouldn't care if Daddy took Unk to the Shelter?" brought the same insistent "No." So Dick put Unk in the car and drove away. He took one look at Unk's mischievous face, drove twice around the block and back to the house.

He shut Unk in the garage; and found Polly and little Kenny upstairs crying. The child had no mock ceremony this time. There was family admission of regret that Unk just couldn't be a gentleman, well meaning as he was.

When he went to the Shelter it was explained to Kenny that Unk was getting too big, too rough to play with other children. Unk had taken to attacking them if they laid a tiny hand on Kenny.

It seemed a happy explanation, which Kenny accepted; that Unk was being taken away "to grow little."

Though Kenny thought it a good idea, he impatiently awaits the day when Unk will come back a sleek, clean little fellow that he can hold in his arms and cuddle.

It has never comforted him that kennels are full of the kind of pet he pictures. No, it must be Unk, grown little.

Long months have passed, yet Kenny, four now, still asks, with chin quiver:

"Mommy, Unk be little pretty soon now?"

Highway Signs Bear Unique
Wording

There is something in it that relaxes our nerves. Laughter is often a better remedy than any doctor or psychiatrist can give.

In this day of tense living and cold wars a good hearty outburst of mirth can change our whole perspective of life.

One who tells us a good story creates within us a desire to love more our fellow man, to give him a better break, to give him at least his half of the road, or, better still, a little more.

For didn't the highway sign read: "Make Courtesy Your Code of the Road."

Gone are the dull black and white road signs that read,
"Stop, Look and Listen." They went with the horse and buggy.
Also, the black and yellow warning is moving off the highway. Taking its place is color, and bright colors are predominant.

Read this one as you go by:
"School Busses Carry Our Most Precious Cargo."

As one motors from Pinehurst, N. C., to Raleigh over Highway No. 1 where an experiment in colorful signs is in progress he will see many whitelettered slogans with blue background. One reads:

"A Lot of Late Friends Tried to Pass Here."

Such signs are doing the job.
Where they silently convey their message, there are fewer traffic fatalities.

Signs reading like those quoted just below are being seen more and more frequently:

"It Is the Passing on Hills That Kills."

"Whiskey and Wheels Won't Mix."

"If You Are Drinking, Stop."
"You'll Live Longer Under 55."

"Worst Bargain You Can Find
Is a Traffic Fine."
"Center Line Is Your Life Line."

FUNNY BUSINESS

"I have to warn people—I was afraid someone would step on him!"

"Slow Down: Don't Be Like the Curve Dead Ahead."

Then, here is a sign with a little different slant: "Heavy
Foot, Light Head, Bad Curve,
Stone Dead."

Another one offers this sound advice: "The Hill Isn't Long, Neither Is Your Life."

Some signs get poetic, such as:

"From One Friend to Another, Slow Down Brother."
"A Mile a Minute, There Is No Future in It."

"Our Kids We Need; Check Your Speed."

Then, in bringing this narrative to a climax, here are two good slogans to insert:

"Are You Driving Yourself to Wreck?"

Sparkman Says Foreign Program Needs Restudy

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) said today Congress "may have to rewrite" the administration's foreign policy program to make it more effective and to "end uncertainty and confusion."

Sparkman, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he thought most Democrats want to present a united bipartisan front, "but the program needs restudy, and it may need rewriting."

"It is hard to put your finger on just what the policy is," Sparkman told a reporter.

In a separate interview, committee chairman George (D-Ga.) said recent Russian moves have "tended to put us too much on the defensive."

"WE SHOULD HAVE a positive, aggressive and definite program," he added.

George said the Russians put this country on the defensive at the October Geneva conference of foreign ministers, and later by visits of Soviet leaders to the Far East.

"The sooner we take a positive attitude the better it will be for us and the free world," George said.

A different kind of attack came last night from Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.). He told a mutual radio audience the administration has "permitted the Communists to write our foreign policy as well as their own." He said that since the Geneva talks, this country's "moral position has been smashed beyond recognition."

George said during the weekend he opposed President Eisenhower's proposal that Congress authorize a long-range program of economic aid to other nations.

"I AM NOT in favor of any increase in economic aid and assistance to any part of the world . . ." he said. "I am against setting up any program, on a 10-year or even a five-year basis."

A sampling of Republican senators indicated little strong outward support for Eisenhower's suggestion, made in his State of the Union message Thursday.

The President said America's friends abroad "need assurance of continuity in economic assistance" for projects which require years for planning and completion.

Sparkman said he personally would support assurances to friendly countries that this nation can be counted on for some economic assistance in the years ahead.

"HOWEVER," he added, "it should be a commitment as a policy, and the amount that would be available each year should be examined each year."

Sparkman said the emphasis in U.S. foreign policy should be "shifted," with more attention to technical aid for the development of resources of needy countries.

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont.) said he would be agreeable to "doubling or even tripling" the amount available for assistance under the technical aid program.

REPLACING BROKEN GIFT

Today's first letter tells me: "At the time of my engagement last year I received a beautiful cut-glass fruit bowl from my fiance's aunt. My engagement was broken a month ago and I returned all the presents to their givers. I received a note from my ex-fiance's sister telling me that the fruit bowl arrived in several pieces. I immediately submitted a claim to the post office for the estimated value of the gift for which I had it insured. The exact value of the bowl was unknown to me. Am I under obligation to replace the gift, send her the money for it, or would a note of apology suffice? Please let me hear from you."

The best thing to do would be to write a note saying how distressed you are about it but fortunately you had it insured and you are enclosing the amount paid for it.

Placing Implements for Refreshments

Dear Mrs. Post: My sister and I have been having an argument as to the correct position of the fork and coffee spoon when serving refreshments. Once a month we have a dessert bridge at which either pie or coffee topped with whipped cream is served. I place the fork and coffee spoon to the right of the dessert plate. My sister says that the fork should be put at the left of the plate and the coffee spoon to the right. Will you please tell us which is right?

Answer: The coffee spoon should be put on the saucer and the fork on the right of the plate. When there is only one implement it is put on the right because it is picked up in the right hand. If there is a knife you of course put the knife on the right and the fork on the left which is right?

Concerning Tipping

Dear Mrs. Post: When going to a beauty salon where more than one person takes care of you (each one doing a specific job, such as cutting, setting, manicure, etc.) is it necessary to give each one a tip?

Answer: Yes. You divide a general tip between them.

Should table linen be monogrammed and if so, where should the monogram be placed? This and many ideas on the types of linen for various occasions are included in Mrs. Post's leaflet E-32, "Table Linens." Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Skein Broken

Atlanta, Jan. 9 (AP)—Hugh Allen missed attending Sunday school for the first time in more than 34 years yesterday. He suffered a blood clot on a lung and was taken to Emory Hospital for treatment. Allen, treasurer of his class at Decatur-Presbyterian Church, figured he attended Sunday school for 1,769 consecutive weeks without a miss.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Secreto of 224 Smith avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Marie to Charles Ascarino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silvio Ascarino of Glasco.

Miss Secreto is employed by the Kingston Knitting Mills. Her fiance served with the U. S. Navy for four years.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Atlantic Storm Cause of Cold, Windy Weather

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—The weather bureau at Washington today issued this special bulletin on weather conditions in the northeastern states:

A very large storm centered about midway between the Atlantic coast and Bermuda, and around which winds of near hurricane force have been reported, remains about stationary and is responsible for the cold and windy weather in the eastern states the past day or so.

HOWEVER, warmer air has moved around this storm and has passed over New England where temperatures rose into the 40s Sunday and Sunday night. Widespread precipitation over the northeastern states has been caused by this influx of warm air.

Through New England the precipitation is now rain, but a large area of freezing rain and sleet covers New Jersey and the eastern portions of New York and Pennsylvania and is expected to spread southward across Maryland into Virginia today attended by hazardous driving conditions.

Snow has been falling during the night through West Virginia, the western portions of Pennsylvania and New York and through parts of Ohio where the snow is expected to change into sleet or freezing rain later on within the next 12 to 24 hours.

In the middle Atlantic states and eastern New York the precipitation is forecast to change over into rain with temperatures rising to above the freezing point tonight.

Adlai's Son Recovered

Boston, Jan. 9 (AP)—John Fell Stevenson, 19, youngest son of Democratic presidential aspirant Adlai Stevenson, was back at his Harvard studies today, apparently recovered from injuries suffered in an automobile accident last month. Young Stevenson arrived at Logan International Airport last night, accompanied by Harvard Economics Prof. Seymour Harris, who spent the weekend with the elder Stevenson. The Harvard sophomore suffered a fractured jaw and loss of a kneecap in the Christmas holiday highway mishap that claimed the lives of two other Harvard students in Indiana.

Plead Guilty

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—Two men captured in a gun fight with police after nearly pulling off a $150,000 holdup of a Brink's armored truck here last August pleaded guilty today to first degree robbery charges. A third man who reportedly took part in the bizarre holdup has not been found. The two pleading guilty today in Erie county court were Sylvester Mazella, 46, of the Bronx and Anthony Pattiato, 39, of Baltimore. Judge Jacob Latora deferred sentencing pending a probation report on the two men. A first felony offender can receive a 10 to 30-year sentence on the charge.

Franklin a Model

Philadelphia, Jan. 9 (AP)—The U. S. Information Agency (USIA) plans to tell the world about America's story "in terms of the life and accomplishments of Benjamin Franklin." Abbott Washburn, deputy USIA director, made the statement in a speech prepared for the Poor Richard Club. Washburn accepted for the agency the Poor Richard Almanack Medal for extraordinary service, presented in connection with the 250th anniversary of Franklin's birth on Jan. 17, 1706.

Contract Awarded

New York, Jan. 9 (AP)—The New York State Power Authority today awarded to Merritt-Chapman & Scott Corp., of New York city, the contract for channel improvements at Sparrowhawk Point and Toussaints Island, near Ogdensburg. The company submitted a bid of $9,794,810, the lowest of seven bids for excavation of 12,288,000 cubic yards of earth and 41,000 cubic yards of rock for the St. Lawrence river power project.

rents, the girl's parents, and friends had little or nothing to say. The turn of events stunned just about everyone, including a local paper which came out with the story of the girl's flight with Hahn on the first page and another story describing her weddin in the society section which had been printed two days previously.

Finally, yesterday morning, the Rev. John Malley, pastor of the Roman Catholic Church in Penfield where the pair was to have wed, called a conference.

THE GROUP met first at the church and then adjourned to the Wehle home.

After the meeting, Owens' mother, Mrs. Hobart L. Owens, said: "We love the girl, we thought she was the dearest girl. I can't help what she did, neither can my son. This thing has hurt my son deeply. I think he should go to Japan for a year and then if he still loves her maybe we can do something about it. Her family suggested that they still be married and thought today might be a good day, but no plans were made."

Owens then made his statement and headed home, presumably to pack for his trip to New York and eventually to the west coast. He will leave from there for duty in Japan—alone.

The pair was met at the airport by Miss Wehle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wehle. He is the president of a trucking firm.

MEANWHILE, back in Rochester, Owens, a former Colgate University football player, said he was deeply shocked. His pa-rency Department to give "technical advice" to small firms unable to buy such advice.

Harriman announced that he plans to make two speeches in California on Jan. 19 and 20. He declared such out-of-state engagements are not interfering with his gubernatorial duties, as has been charged by Republicans. He is always available to his staff, day and night, Harriman said.

THE GOVERNOR said he has made only a few talks outside the state. These have been so "widely reported," he continued, that it "confuses the people" and they "don't realize how little I have been out of New York."

On another WRCA-TV broadcast Republican Atty. Gen. Jacob K. Javits advised the Legislature to make no decision on an income tax cut until after it acts on the state budget.

HE SAID there should be no reductions until it is known whether there will be a surplus. "The first consideration is doing the job for the state," Javits said. "The second consideration is whether, if that results in a true surplus, we can reduce taxes."

Harriman, who appears on a later program, praised Javits for having given "wise advice."

The attorney general, only Republican in the state's Democratic administration, declined to say whether he prefers Harriman's tax cut of $5 for everyone or a percentage reduction plan. He predicted it would be late next month or early in March before an intelligent choice could be made.

Maroons Duel Unbeaten Poughkeepsie Here Tomorrow

KHS Seeks Fifth Victory In DUSO Match
Seven Games On Cage Card

Attempting to rebound after a Friday night loss at Port Jervis, Kingston High School's basketball team takes on the top team in the DUSO League, Poughkeepsie High, tomorrow night at the Kate Walton Field House.

The locals, winners of their first four games, will have their hands full against Sam Kalloch's Bridge City quintet, which has won five straight. The Blues-turned-Pioneers are rated the class of the DUSO.

Kingston will have the record book in its favor, however. Poughkeepsie has yet to win a game on the field house court. Both times PHS squad has been soundly beaten.

ALSO, the Bridge City club is never as effective as when it is within the claustrophobic confines of its own "gymnasium."

The Maroon-Blue clash — and it should be a good one — highlights a seven-game schedule.

Other DUSO tilts include Newburgh at Middleton, Fallsburgh at Ellenville and Liberty at Port Jervis.

Among the village schools, it's St. Patrick's at Highland, Marlboro at Maybrook and Onteora at Wallkill. Saugerties, Kerhonkson and New Paltz don't swing into action until Friday.

Friday, incidentally, will be another big night for the Kings-tonians. Jack Gilligan and his players will visit the den of arch-rival Newburgh.

TOMORROW'S game is of paramount importance, however. The local team needs a victory to remain a DUSO contender.

Despite the Kallochmen's imposing record, they cannot be rated unbeatable. A Newburgh team having as little experience as Kingston and even less height gave Monty Sticks and Co. a hard time before bowing by a 69-60 count.

The Kingston team will be at full strength for the game. Tony Grimaldi, bedded by a virus infection during the Port Jervis contest, will be ready to play.

The probable Kingston starting team will be Grimaldi and Tom Flemming, forwards; Richie Strong, center; Bob Smith and Jim Jackson, guards. Al Long may get the starting nod at one of the guard posts in lieu of Jackson. Melvin Williams, the pint-sized set shot artist, is expected to see plenty of action.

There'll be a duel of big pivot-men during the game—Kingston's Strong, who stands 6-6, and Poughkeepsie's Sticks, who is an inch shorter but much heavier.

POUGHKEEPSIE invariably uses a man-to-man defense. The Pioneers attack from an orthodox formation, the guards rarely going further forward than the foul line. They like to fast break. So does Kingston, so it should be a rapidly-paced scoring duel.

Here's a brief rundown on the Poughkeepsie starting five:

MONTY STICKLES, center. Good scorer, will hit 20 or more per game. Big and rough, likes to use weight (215). Fakes with head rather than body, sometimes mishandles passes. Has a tendency to loaf when not pressed, but is tough when the heat's on.

LEE J. NELSON, forward. Fastest and smallest man on team. Excellent dribbler, good shot. Often tries to steal ball on defense.

STU SONNE, forward. Tallest man other than Sticks. Much improved over last year, good scorer. Starts slow, improves as game progresses. Not much natural speed.

CHARLEY JOHNSON, guard. Great rebounder, best defensive player. Can score with one-hand if he chooses. Guards man very closely.

GEORGE PHILLIPS, guard. Same size as Johnson; good all-around player. Sets up the plays, likes to use fancy passes. Favorite shot is a jump from foul line.

The Jayvee game will begin at 6:30 o'clock.

Segura's Cries During Match Often Confusing

Kingston — Popular professional tennis veteran Francisco (Pancho) Segura may well cause a great deal of confusion with his fervent pleas to "Pancho!" during the World Tennis Inc. tour this year.

You see, Segura will be teaming up with Dick (Pancho) Gonzales in the doubles against Rex Hartwig and Tony Trabert when the Jack Kramer Tennis Troupe visits Kingston Municipal Auditorium Sunday, Jan. 29, at 8 p.m.

And, Segura has a habit of talking to himself while he plays tennis. His anguished pleas of self-criticism "Pancho!" have delighted tennis audiences for years.

The cries won't be directed to partner Pancho Gonzales, at all.

This running patter of comment on the game is part of the colorful Segura "legend." The humorous repartee, the unorthodox two-handed grip, the amazing contortions and the bird-dog retrieving skill appeal to the fans.

Segura is the underdog, who fights back against terrific odds to win.

Pancho scampers around the court like a monkey on a stick, making impossible saves with his unusual collection of strokes. Not a bit of the gyrations is conscious show, either, and the galleries love him.

Gonzales and Trabert will meet in the featured singles match, Segura and Hartwig in another singles test.

Gruner Named KHS Baseball Coach, Marking 2nd Change in Local Ranks

Albert G. "Al" Gruner has been named the new baseball coach at Kingston High School. The appointment is effective immediately.

Gruner will succeed Willard G. "Bill" Burke, who has held the position since 1946.

The move marked the second major change in Kingston coaching ranks within a year. Last June, John J. "Jack" Gilligan was named to succeed G. Warren Klas as varsity basketball coach.

THE BOARD of Education granted a request by Burke that he be relieved of his baseball coaching duties.

Gruner has coached Kingston junior varsity teams for a decade. He is currently the physical education director at the Myron J. Michael school.

Gruner, 38, was born in New York city. He graduated from Highland High School in 1936. He attended the now-closed Riordan Prep school.

The new KHS mentor graduated from Ithaca college in 1941 with a Bachelor of Science degree. He has since earned a master's degree in physical education at New York University and is now working towards a doctorate in the field of educational administration.

Gruner served two years in the Army during World War II. He managed the Camp Edwards, Mass., baseball team

Art Devlin Sets St. Lawrence Mark

South Colton, Jan. 9 (AP)—Art Devlin, an old hand at ski jump records, soared to another yesterday.

The senior member of the U. S. Olympic ski-jump team set a competitive record for the 55-meter hill in St. Lawrence University's Ski Bowl with a leap of 184 feet.

Devlin also made another jump of 182 feet, equaling the old competitive mark set by Art Tokle four years ago.

Devlin's jumps were in a special event that climaxed the fourth annual St. Lawrence Invitation ski meet.

Jones Boys Belt 3213 Series, Oster 697 in Romp Over Forsts

Jones Dairy unloaded a 3213 series to crush Forst Formots three straight in an intra-city Hudson Valley League tennis duel Saturday night at the Bowldrome.

Jerry Oster fired 697 and Johnny Ferraro had 674 as the Dairymen powered slams of 1123, 1102 and 986.

Oster appeared to be on his way to a big "700" with opening counts of 246 and 256 but he slumped to 195 in the stretch run.

FERRARO TIED his son's high single mark of 279 and added 196 and 199 for his 674. Chris Gallo furnished 211-221-621, Jackie Ferraro had 206-248-624 and Charlie Manfrro shot 205-201-597.

Top man for Forsts was Whitey Crispell with 211-216-618. Jack Houghtaling cracked 214-212-611 and Randy Kelder added 223-220-597.

The senior member of the U. S. Olympic ski-jump team set a competitive record for the 55-meter hill in St. Lawrence University's Ski Bowl with a leap of 184 feet.

MYSTERY KISS FOR PRINCE RAINIER—Actress Grace Kelly, right, is apparently unaware that her fiance, Prince Rainier III of Monaco, is being kissed by a "mystery woman" as they leave a swank ball entitled "A Night at Monte Carlo" in New York city (Jan. 6). The

New York Post said Miss Kelly was not amused and quoted the Prince as saying he did not know who the woman was who twice broke through guards to buss him. This photo was taken by N. Y. Post staff photographer Tony Calvaca. (AP Wirephoto).

Student En Route Home
San Francisco, Jan. 9 (AP)—A Chinese graduate student who denied Communist Chinese charges that he was held in the United States against his will is on his way home today. Liu Yung-ming, 36, sailed aboard the liner President Wilson yesterday for Hong Kong. He has a wife and 7-year-old daughter in Red China. Liu was released last week from a mental hospital at Farmington, Mo., where he was sent in 1949. He had a mental breakdown shortly after obtaining a master's degree from the University of Missouri. He is well enough now to travel alone, the hospital said. Liu denied the Communist allegation, saying he "stayed to be treated for my disease" and thanks to the treatment, "I am well now."

Security Bloopers
Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—Pentagon officials speculated today that a Senate investigating group had committed a security bloopers in a report criticizing the army for "military waste and inefficiency." The report from the Armed Services Preparedness Subcommittee, headed by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.), publicly rapped the knuckles of army officers for an urgent order for more than two million dollars worth of tents late in 1954. The report said few of the 1,195 large tents were used or needed and termed it "careless planning" and an example of "a waste of precious defense dollars."

Up to Mediators

Pittsburgh, Jan. 9 (AP)—The nationwide strike by the AFL-CIO International Union of Electrical Workers against Westinghouse Electric Corp. entered its 13th week today with no further negotiations scheduled and the next move apparently up to federal mediators. There was no statement from either disputant or from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. But both company and union sources indicated they were expecting another try from the Mediation Service to get them together again at a bargaining table. Negotiations broke off last week.

Killed in Explosion

Chicago, Jan. 9 (AP)—An explosion which firemen believe was caused by gas wrecked an apartment house, killed one person and injured two others last night. Joseph Fernandez, 8, died of burns two hours after the blast which occurred in a three-story building south of the loop. Two women were hurt. Fire Marshal Frank Thielmann estimated damage at $6,000 and $7,000. He ordered residents of houses on each side of the wrecked building to move out temporarily because of possible collapse of the remainder of the structure.

To Activate Reserves

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 9 (AP)—Plans to activate nine Chinese Nationalist reserve divisions were announced today by the Ministry of National Defense and the U. S. military assistance advisory group. No date was announced. Gen. Huang Chieh, commander-in-chief of the Nationalist army, yesterday said the Nationalists soon will be able to muster at least 30 divisions. They presumably will include the reserve divisions to be activated.

Conferences Are Set by FBI to Cut Auto Thefts

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—Seeking to curb auto thefts, the FBI announced today it will conduct more than 100 conferences of local police, business men and others throughout the nation this year.

The conferences, will be operated on a forum basis. They will be designed to improve coordination among law enforcement agencies and to increase efficiency in dealing with the problem. Similar conferences were held in 1952.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said that during the last several years "approximately two automobiles have been stolen every five minutes." The thefts totaled 215,940 in 1954, he said.

More than a million car thefts have occurred since 1950 and accounted for 52 per cent by value of all property stolen in 1954.

The value of automobiles stolen in this country in the last five years totals more than a billion dollars, the Justice Department said.

"This complex problem is exemplified by the types of individuals involved," the department said in a statement.

"They range in age from juveniles to elderly, experienced criminals."

Two Legislators Would License Chiropractors

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—Two Republican lawmakers renewed their drive in the Legislature today for enactment of bills that would require state licensing of all chiropractors.

Sen. Dutton S. Peterson of Odessa and Assemblyman Leo B. Noonan of Cattaraugus county introduced measures to create a state board of chiropractic examiners to regulate the profession.

PETERSON SAID he and Noonan were acting "for the protection of the public, not for the benefit of the state's 3,000 chiropractors."

The Peterson-Noonan measures are backed by the Chiropractic Assn. of New York State Inc., which claims about 1,000 members. Similar bills sponsored by the two lawmakers died in committee in 1953, 1954 and 1955.

Peterson said the previous measures had failed to win passage because of opposition by the medical profession. He added:

"OUR MEDICAL MEN have ignored the fact that chiropractors have clearly demonstrated that they have no intention of invading the medical field in any way, whatsoever, but are content to remain within the prescribed orbit of their own branch of the healing arts."

The Peterson-Noonan bill would require chiropractors to meet educational standards equivalent to those set by law for medical doctors, bar non-licensed chiropractors from practicing in the state, and prohibit chiropractors from performing surgery, prescribing drugs or medicine or from practicing obstetrics.

Peterson said the so-called "grandfather clause" had been omitted from the 1956 measure. This clause, which appeared in previous bills, would have permitted chiropractors already established in practice to obtain licenses without written examinations.
